JETS DIRECTORS

Before the 1968 campaign the New York Jets leadership underwent its second major change in less than a year. Upon the sudden death of President Donald C. Lillis in July, Philip H. Iselin, a member of the original syndicate which purchased the franchise in 1963, was elected to the chief executive post. In addition, corporate Officers include Townsend B. Martin, Leon Hess, Arnold Grant, and Mrs. Helen Springborn, daughter of the late Donald C. Lillis.

In six short years three of the original backers of the Jets, Iselin, Martin, and Hess, realized a life-long dream of pro football supremacy. The dream was realized on Jan. 12, 1969 with the Jets convincing victory over the Baltimore Colts. This was a far cry from the bankrupt franchise purchased in 1963. The 1968 season was climaxed by the naming of four Jet stars to the combined AFL-NFL All-Pro Team: Joe Namath, George Sauer, Jr., Gerry Philbin, and Jim Turner.

The directors have aspired to the goal of maintaining a championship club off the field as well as on. Among the off-season accolades received by the club was the "Franchise of the Year" award given by a national graduate study center in the franchise industry. Further honors included Weeb Ewbank being named pro football's "Man of the Year".

New York fans can be assured that the Jet directors will continue to settle for nothing less than the best and look forward to defending the World Championship of Pro Football in 1969.

PHILIP H. ISELIN, President and Chief Executive Officer, is the president of the Korell Company and president and Chairman of the Board of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club. The popular Iselin has had an extensive background in racing, and enjoys the unique distinction of heading two major sporting concerns. Iselin lives in Oceanport, N.J. and this summer was bestowed with an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters by Monmouth College (N.J.) for his contribution to the shore area.

TOWNSEND B. MARTIN, Chairman of the Board, is an internationally-known owner and breeder of thoroughbred race horses and a member of the Jockey Club. Martin is also engaged in the investment banking business with Bessemer Securities Corp. in New York City. An original backer of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club in 1946, he now serves on the Board of Directors.

LEON HESS, Vice President, is the well-respected director, president and chief executive officer of the Hess Oil & Chemical Corporation of Perth Amboy, N.J. He is on the board of directors of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club and is a director of the New Jersey National Bank and Trust Company.

MRS. HELEN SPRINGBORN, Vice President, is the daughter of the late Donald C. Lillis, former President of the New York Jets. Mrs. Springborn, an enthusiastic football fan, is the first woman executive in professional football. She resides with her family in Pelham, N.Y.

ARNOLD GRANT, Secretary-Treasurer, is a nationally known lawyer representing many notables in the business, political and entertainment worlds. He is a member of the New York and California Bar Associations and on the Board of Trustees of Syracuse University. Grant is on the Board of Directors of six corporations, and was appointed to the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions and the Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Foundation. He is married to Bess Meyerson, Commissioner of the Department of Consumer Affairs for New York City.

WEEB EWBank

Head Coach and General Manager

The first coach to win World Championships in both leagues—American and National—that's Weeb Ewbank, head coach and general manager of the New York Jets.

Ewbank guided the AFL Jets to the professional football world title in 1968 and won NFL titles back-to-back in 1958 and 1959 as head coach of the Baltimore Colts, the team the Jets defeated for the world crown.

Weeb began his career as an assistant at his alma mater, Miami University of Ohio, and spent 14 seasons there. In 1959 he was presented with an honorary Doctorate from Miami. In February of this year he was inducted into his alma mater's Hall of Fame.

In 1943 he joined Paul Brown at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station as an assistant. At the end of the war, Weeb became backfield coach at Brown University and head basketball coach for the Bruins. After one season there he moved on to Washington University in St. Louis as head grid coach. In two seasons he brought the Maroons their finest record in 30 compiling a 14-4 record including a 9-1 mark in 1948. While there, Weeb also acquired a son-in-law—Charlie Winner, one of his players, married his daughter. Winner is now head coach of the St. Louis Cardinals.

In 1949, Ewbank rejoined Paul Brown and the Cleveland Browns, serving as line coach. During the next four years, the Browns dominated pro football, winning the all-America Conference title then taking the NFL championship in 1950 and Eastern division pennants in 1951-52-53.

Ewbank publicly exhibited his brilliant managerial talents when he moved to Baltimore in 1954. He took a team that was beset with disorganization and within six years produced two NFL championships. Among the many stars developed by Ewbank at Baltimore were Johnny Unitas, Alan Ameche, Raymond Berry, Lenny Moore, Gino Marchetti, Arthur Donovan, Bill Pellington, Jim Parker and Big Daddy Lipscomb.

In 1963 the New York Jets moved to get Ewbank to lead the struggling AFL franchise on the path to success. Moving carefully to reorganize the team, Ewbank led the Jets for four years before producing a winner for the first time in 1967. Then in 1968 the rebuilding plans came to fruition with the Super Bowl championship.

Through the years, players and assistant coaches who have been under Ewbank have gone on to greater assignments. Since the Super Bowl, Clive Rush left the Jets to become head coach of the Boston Patriots. Don Shula played for Weeb at Baltimore and subsequently became the Colts' head man. Joe Spencer, current offensive line coach of the Jets, played tackle under Ewbank and Paul Brown at Cleveland. John Sandusky, Joe Thomas, Lou Rymkus, Art Spinney, Jack Patera, Carl Taseff, Bobby Boyd, Bob Shaw, John Bridgers and Frank Lauterbur are others who have moved ahead after playing or coaching under Weeb.

Since coming to New York, Ewbank has developed four all-pro players. This past season Joe Namath gained every pro football honor. Gerry Philbin, George Sauer, Jr. and Jim Turner joined Namath on the all-pro lists. Don Maynard, Larry Grantham, Dave Herman, Verlon Biggs and Matt Snell are other Jets who have received all-league recognition under Ewbank.

As an undergraduate at Miami, Weeb was a quarterback, captain of the baseball team and a member of the basketball squad.

A native of Richmond, Ind., he married the former Lucy Massey, also of Richmond. They have three married daughters all with families.

1968 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland in the ninth annual American Football League championship game. A championship game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes (2 to Don Maynard, 1 to Pete Lammons). In addition, Jim Turner, the league's leading scorer booted two field goals.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack and Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

Oakland, bidding for its second straight crown, was led by the passing arm of Daryle Lamonica, who passed for 401 yards. Their running attack was blunted by the Jets league leading defense which held Hewitt Dixon & Co. to 44 yards. The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the first coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph. A crowd of 75,377 witnessed the spectacle in Miami's Orange Bowl.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (4 yards), and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The blocking and pass protection offered by the Jets line was superb.

But the defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two, Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The one touchdown represented the lowest point output by the powerful Colts in 35 games. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and thus made him the first man to ever coach World Champions in both the AFL and NFL.

SHEA STADIUM

Home of the Jets

One of the premier showcases of the American Football League, William A. Shea Stadium is the home of the New York Jets. The multi-colored tiers of seats have housed Jets fans since the club moved from the old Polo Grounds for the 1964 season.

The stadium is at the center of a vast transportation network, which enables fans to arrive by land, sea or air with nearly equal ease. Vehicular traffic utilizes a $111 million complex of parkways, while crowds may also use the I.R.T. Flushing line subway which runs directly to the Willets Point station, only a few steps from Shea. The Long Island Railroad station is within easy walking distance as is the enlarged Flushing Bay Marina. Both Kennedy International and LaGuardia airports are minutes away by taxi.

There are 60,000 seats for Jet football games and all are totally unobstructed by columns or posts. Every seat has a clear view of the field. An ingenious system of seat rotation along railroad tracks allows 10,000 permanent seats to be moved electrically to positions along the sidelines. Over 19,000 seats are on the ground level; 14,000 are on the second tier, while 20,000 more are in the upper deck. Temporary seats, accommodating 5,000 fans are installed at the open end zone of the stadium.

Shea has one of the nation's most modern lighting techniques, with lights running in continuous strips around the cantilevered roof, eliminating all towers except for two banks beyond the endzone.

In 1964, 1965, 1966 and 1967 the Jets established AFL attendance records at Shea. An average crowd of 61,965 watched the world champions in action last year. The Jets also hold the record for the largest single game AFL attendance—63,786—which jammed the stadium to watch New York down San Diego on Oct. 5, 1968. It is also the largest crowd ever to see an event at Shea.
